Rehabilitation of Offenders Act

As a general rule, no-one need answer questions about spent convictions. However this general rule does not apply to specified professions, employments and occupations. By virtue of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) (Amendment) Orders, the exemption rule does not apply to:

- a) any employment or other work which is concerned with the provision of health services and which is of such a kind as to enable the holder of that employment or the person engaged in that work to have access to persons in receipt of such services in the course of his normal duties, or
- b) any employment or other work which is concerned with the provision of care services to vulnerable adults and which is of such a kind as to enable the holder of that employment or the person engaged in that work to have access to vulnerable adults in receipt of such services in the course of his normal duties

One or both of the above apply to your possible work with us, and covers all occupations.

You are therefore requested to provide details of all convictions, including those which would otherwise be considered as “spent”. All employment applications will be considered carefully, and the disclosure of a conviction does not imply that this employment application will be rejected.

I have no convictions I have convictions (see Note below)

Note To protect the confidentiality of this information, please detail convictions on a separate sheet of paper. Place it in a sealed envelope with your name clearly visible, and headed “Private and Confidential – Criminal Convictions” and attach this to your application.

Independent Safeguarding Authority (ISA)

It is a criminal offence for individuals barred by the ISA to work or apply to work with children or vulnerable adults in a wide range of posts, and in what is described as “regulated” or “controlled” activity. It is also an offence for an employer to take on an individual in a controlled activity if they fail to check that person’s status. The Company has a legal obligation, therefore to check your status.

Are you currently registered with the ISA? Yes No Please ✓ as appropriate

If yes, What is your ISA Registration Number?

The Company will confirm your status with the ISA. If you are not currently registered, and you are successful in your application you may be asked to register. The fees involved will be paid by the Company. If your work is subject to ISA Registration you may not commence your duties until clearance has been given.. In certain cases an Enhanced Criminal Record Certificate may be requested from the CRB in addition to the ISA check.

Immigration, Asylum & Nationality Act 2006

Under the Act a person commits an offence if he employs another (“the employee”) knowing that the employee is an adult subject to immigration control and that—

- (a) he has not been granted leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom, or
- (b) his leave to enter or remain in the United Kingdom—
 - (i) is invalid,
 - (ii) has ceased to have effect (whether by reason of curtailment, revocation, cancellation, passage of time or otherwise), or
 - (iii) is subject to a condition preventing him from accepting the employment.

Any employment offered will be subject to the successful applicant producing appropriate evidence that the Act is not being contravened.
